Each author must read and sign the statements on 1. Authorship Responsibility, Criteria, and Contributions, 2. Either Copyright Agreement or U.S. and Other Government Employee Author permission to publish. If necessary, photocopy this document to distribute to coauthors.

1. Author Responsibility, Criteria and Contributions.

Each author should meet all criteria below (A, B, and C) and should indicate general and specific contributions by reading criteria A, B, and C and checking the appropriate boxes.

A. I certify that:

- The manuscript represents valid work and that neither this manuscript nor one with substantially similar content under my authorship has been published or is being considered for publication elsewhere, except as described in an attachment or where prior agreement with the Editors/Publishers has been sought; and
- If requested, I will provide the data or will cooperate fully in obtaining and providing the data on which the manuscript is based for examination by the editors or their assignees; and
- For papers with more than one author, I agree to allow the corresponding author to serve as the primary correspondent with the editorial office, to review the edited typescript and proof, and to make decisions regarding release of information in the manuscript to the media, federal agencies, or both; or, if I am the only author, I will be the corresponding author and agree to serve in the roles described above.

B. I have given final approval of the submitted manuscript

C. I have participated sufficiently in the work to take public responsibility for the content.

The Information Institute, a Nevada, USA not-for profit corporation, located at 1350 E. Flamingo Rd, Ste 780, Las Vegas, Nevada 89119, USA and with Corporate Headquarters at 2020 Pennsylvania Ave NW, Ste 904, Washington DC 20006, USA, and Author hereby agree as follows:

In consideration of the Information Institute reviewing and editing the following described work for first publication on an exclusive basis:

Journal: Journal of Information System Security Manuscript Number _____

First/Contact Author (strikethrough as appropriate): _____

Title of Work: _____

The undersigned author hereby assigns, conveys, and otherwise transfers all rights, title, interest, and copyright ownership in said work to the Information Institute effective upon acceptance of said work for publication. "Work" includes the material submitted for publication and any other related material submitted to the Information Institute. The assignment of rights to the Information Institute includes but is not expressly limited to rights to edit, publish, reproduce, distribute copies, prepare derivative works, include in indexes or search databases in print, electronic, or other media, whether or not in use at the time of execution of this agreement, and claim copyright in said work through-out the world for the full duration of the copyright and any renewals or extensions thereof.

Authors retain all proprietary rights in any idea, process, procedure, or articles of manufacture described in the Work, including the right to seek patent protection for them. Authors may perform, lecture, teach, conduct related research and display all or part of the Work, in print or electronic format (posting of the Work on the Internet for general public downloads is not permitted). Authors may reproduce and distribute the Work for non-commercial purposes only. For all copies of the Work made by Authors, Authors must acknowledge Information Institute and the Journal as original publisher and include the names of all author(s), the publication title, and an appropriate copyright notice that identifies Information Institute as the copyright holder.

All accepted Works become the property of the Information Institute and may not be published elsewhere without written permission from the Information Institute. Authors may use parts of the Work (e.g., tables, figures) in subsequent Works without requesting permission from the Information Institute.

When Works are created under grant from a funding body and accepted for publication in an Information Institute journal, the author may cause the posting of the "Accepted Version" of the Work on the web-based archive of a funding body responsible for the funding in whole or part of the Work, provided that the posting is no sooner than six months after publication of the Work in an Information Institute journal and that the archive is publicly available via the World Wide Web in a noncommercial manner. The "Accepted Version" is the accepted version of the paper including changes resulting from peer review but prior to Information Institute's copyediting and production. "No sooner than six months after publication of the Work in an Information Institute journal" means at least six months after the first appearance of the Work either on the Information Institute journal's web site as a publish-ahead-of-print article or on the Information Institute journal's web site published as part of a regular issue, whichever occurs first.

Authors hereby represent and warrant that they are sole authors of the work, that all authors have participated in and agree with the content and conclusions of the work, and that the work is original and does not infringe upon any copyright, proprietary, or personal right of any third party, and that no part of it nor any work based on substantially similar data has been submitted to another journal for publication.

In the event that the Information Institute does not publish said work, authors will be so notified and all rights assigned hereunder will revert to authors.

If a joint work, all co-authors must transfer rights in said work to the Information Institute by executing this Agreement.

This Agreement must be executed as is without revision or substitution of terms. An original handwritten signature of the author is required. Please mail copyrights to the address at the top of the form. However to expedite the production process, fax the copyright in addition to the mailing (Fax number + 1 202 449 5639).

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the United States.
